FEMINIST RESEARCHERS AGAINST BORDERS

SUMMER SCHOOL TASTER

21-22 JULY 2018 \ ATHENS, GREECE
The Feminist Researchers Against Borders Summer School “Taster” will generate ideas, raise interest, and pique our imaginations. The Summer School itself will take place on June 17-30, 2019 in Athens. It will be a space of emergent politics and creative socialities. It will develop students’ familiarity with intersectional feminist methodologies, no borders framework, and other critical approaches to researching “crises.” It will be a mobile school for mobile learning, where students will work collaboratively with frontline activists and organisers, artists, scholars, and those experiencing and struggling against injustice in their daily lives, in an environment that is enriched by acknowledging these are roles that overlap. The taster will convey that this won’t be just any old summer school.
